

Anne Washington

Education

North Carolina State University, B.S. Fisheries, Wildlife, and Conservation Biology
Cumulative GPA: 3.76      Graduated May 2018

Experience

Visitor Services Intern, USFWS, May 2019 – September 2019

Supervisor: Janis Nepshinsky

- Led field trips and environmental education with children of all ages on Ninigret NWR
- Manned visitor center, answering questions and engaging the public with the Rhode Island NWR system
- Monitored nests of Least Terns and Piping Plovers on state and federal beaches
- Restored saltmarsh habitat through reintroduction of native saltmarsh grass species
- Conducted trail management, visitor counts, and acted as a presence on Refuge land
- Conducted outreach and pass system monitoring on Sandy Point Island

Biodiversity Lab Intern, North Carolina Museum of Natural Sciences, August 2017– December 2017

Supervisor: Lisa Gatens, Alexandra Mash, Dr. Roland Kays

- Set camera traps in Hyde and Dare County, North Carolina
- Conducted expert review on species present
- Managed volunteers by assigning deployments and training
- Created maps for potential camera trap deployments using google maps

Undergraduate Study Abroad (Namibia) - African Ecology & Conservation, Summer 2017

Instructors: Dr. Werner Dörgeleh

- Practiced sampling techniques including line-transect, grass biomass plots, line-intercept tree density, belt transect, insect pit trapping, radio telemetry, and camera trapping
- Engaged in and discussed ecotourism, desert and savanna ecology, human-wildlife interactions

Volunteer, Huntley Meadows State Park, Spring 2014 – Summer 2018

Supervisor: Karen Sheffield

- Conducted auditory surveys of frog populations within the wetland
- Collected and analyzed data for the national FrogWatch USA citizen science program using Excel
- Managed small captive animals in welcome center

Awards and Achievements

Dean's List: Fall 2014 - May 2018
Graduated Summa Cum Laude

Other Work Experience

Port City Java Barista, August 2016- May 2018

Supervisor: Monica Smith

- Proficiency in customer service and people management

Anne Washington

8408 Riverside Road Alexandria, VA | 703.400.2521 | washington.anne@gmail.com

- Experience in multiple food and beverage preparation processes and machinery; assisted in training new personnel

Starbucks Barista, October 2018 – April 2019, October 2019 – Present

Supervisor: Sureya Hassan Tawad

- Proficiency in customer service and people management

Skills

- Camera Trapping
- Microsoft Excel
- GIS
- eMammal database analysis
- Motorboat Operator Certified (2019-2024)
- First Aid and CPR Certified (2019 – 2021)